On Wednesday, February 13, 2008, at 13 o'clock, the USAID-funded Creative Teaching and Learning Program will host a ceremony and reception to celebrate the opening of the newly established media labs and model classrooms at the State University in Tetovo.

The U.S. Ambassador in the Republic of Macedonia Gillian A. Milovanovic, Minister of Education and Science Sulejman Rushiti, Rector of Tetovo State University Sadi Bexheti, Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Arts Muqereme Rusi, and the Executive Director of the Foundation Open Society Institute Macedonia Vladimir Milcin are expected to give speeches.

The Creative Teaching and Learning project is implemented by the Foundation Open Society Institute Macedonia (FOSIM), and provides technical assistance and equipment to eight public pre-service Teacher Training Institutions in Skopje, Stip, Bitola and Tetovo. The American people, through USAID/CTL, have invested over $93,000 in the building and the technical equipment of the newly established facilities at the State University in Tetovo.
